FDR: AMERICAN TYRANT

The Shocking 'Rap Sheet' of Franklin Delano Roosevelt

Among America's Establishment historians, Franklin Delano Roosevelt is almost universally regarded as America's "greatest President".

The purpose of the following 'Rap Sheet' is not to review FDR's economic failures and lies (though there were plenty), but rather to focus solely on the tyrannical actions of FDR's Presidency.

Most of FDR's modern day conservative detractors are not even fully aware of just how heavy FDR's hand was. Liberals are often shocked when they hear the full extent of FDR's tyranny (though many will find some sick intellectual contortion in order to rationalize these deeds.)

We present, in chronological order, FDR's 16 worst acts of dictatorial tyranny. Judge for yourself.

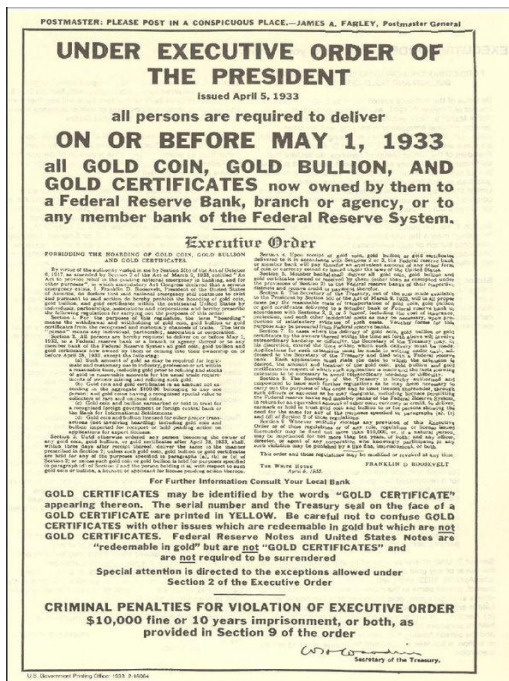

"Men will thank God on their knees a hundred years from now that Franklin D. Roosevelt was in the White House." – New York Times eulogy for FDR

APRIL 1933 / FDR BANS THE OWNERSHIP OF GOLD

FDR signs Executive Order 6102 "forbidding the Hoarding of gold coin, gold bullion, and gold certificates within the continental United States". Under the false pretext of "economic stabilization", the order criminalizes the possession of monetary gold by any individual, partnership, or corporation.

Americans were required to deliver all but a small amount of gold coin, gold bullion, and gold certificates owned by them to the privately owned Federal Reserve, in exchange for $20.67 (equivalent to $372.75 today) per troy ounce. Violation of the order was punishable by fine up to $10,000 (equivalent to $180,334 today) or up to ten years in prison, or both!

Numerous Americans were arrested and imprisoned for possession of Gold. In those cases, their Gold was seized without compensation.

FDR to America: "Turn it in to the Fed, or go to jail!"

1933-1938 / NEW DEAL EDICTS

Whether they are pro or con, when most people think of the New Deal, massive 'relief' programs and 'make work' schemes come to mind. But the New Deal's dictatorial aspects are often overlooked. The totalitarian dictates associated with the National Recovery Act (NRA) include wage controls, price controls, production controls, as well as mandates governing agriculture and industry.

To manipulate prices, farmers are ordered to kill livestock; as millions go hungry during the Depression! In one well known case, a New Jersey tailor named Jacob Maged is arrested and convicted for charging too little to press suits. Upon his release after 3 days, Maged is forced to increase his prices and display a blue NRA sticker on his shop window.

Left: The "criminal" tailor Maged was arrested, fined, forced to raise his prices, and put an NRA sign in his shop window.

Right: More New Deal insanity - Killing and wasting cattle is good for the economy?!

SEPTEMBER 1935 / THE INVESTIGATION & ASSASSINATION* OF HUEY LONG

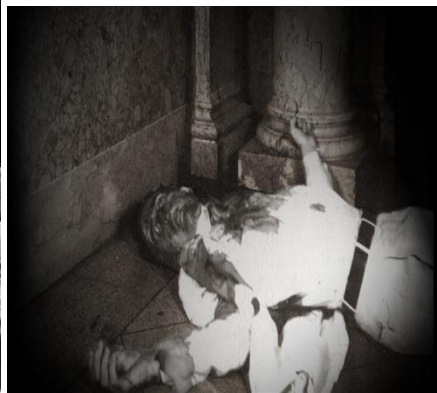

(*Speculation)

We admit that this one is an unproven theory. Yet it is one that is plausible enough to "put out there" for consideration.

Louisiana Senator Huey Long is a firebrand Southern Democrat. Initially a Roosevelt supporter, Long came to view FDR as a phony and a tool of the Eastern 'Bankster' Class. FDR despises Long, referring to him and General Douglass Macarthur as "the two most dangerous men in America." To discredit Long, FDR orders his IRS to investigate Long's finances.

The popular Long is preparing to mount a 1936 challenge to FDR. But on September 8, 1935, a Dr. Carl Weiss confronts Long and fires a bullet into his abdomen. Rather than take Weiss alive, bodyguards shoot him 60 times. (He won't be talking!)

As the theory goes, Weiss is just a patsy, set up only to punch Long in the face while a guard actually shoots the Senator. Long is rushed to the hospital and dies two days later due to what some say is "medical incompetence". No autopsy is performed. More than 100,000 mourners attend Long's funeral.

Left: Long denounces FDR and the Eastern banking class.

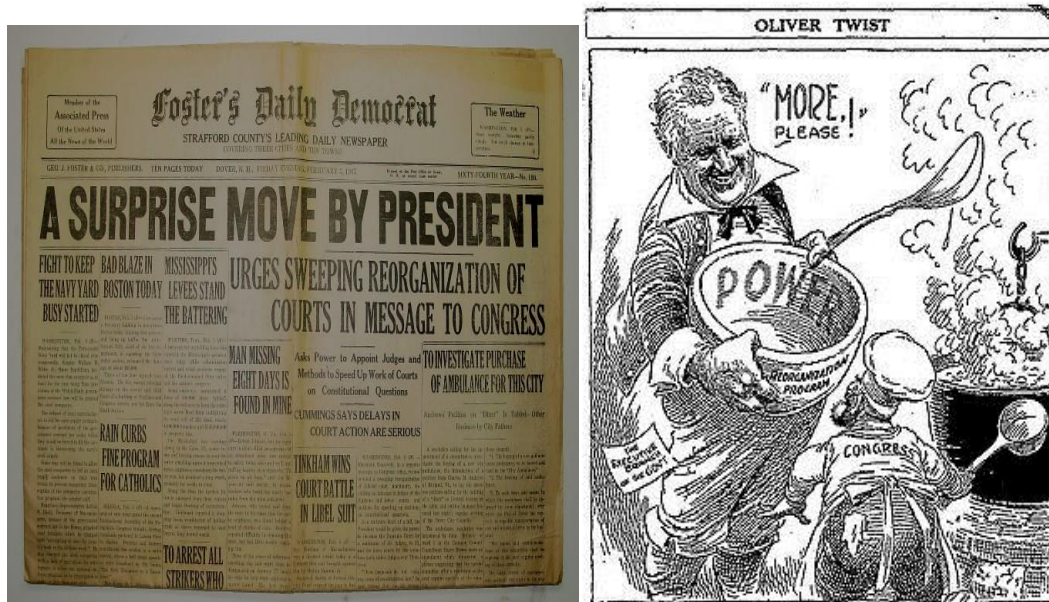

Center: Carl Weiss, the patsy "assassin" is needlessly shot to death (ala Lee Harvey Oswald and John Wilkes Booth)

Right: Long was actually recovering before his condition worsened.

FEBRUARY 1937 / THE COURT PACKING SCHEME

FDR proposes the Judicial Procedures Reform Bill (AKA the "court-packing plan") to add more justices to the U.S. Supreme Court. Roosevelt's purpose is to obtain favorable rulings regarding New Deal schemes that the court had ruled unconstitutional. The bill would grant FDR power to appoint an additional "rubber stamp" Justice to the Supreme Court, up to a maximum of six, for every member of the court over the age of 70 (who FDR openly mocked as "nine old men").

FDR's bold power grab is so unpopular that many Democrats begin to distance themselves from him. The horrible power grab fails.

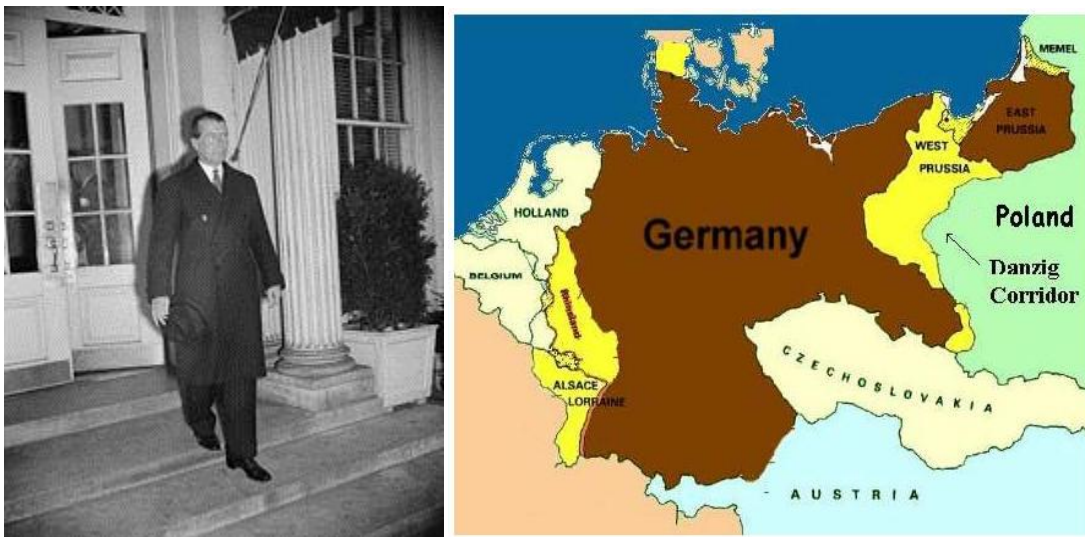

Even many of FDR's Democrat supporters were outraged by his 'Court Packing Scheme'. Anger over the proposal (coupled with the failure of the New Deal) caused the Democrats to lose 80 Congressional seats in the 1938 mid-term election.

SUMMER 1939 / FDR MANIPULATES POLAND INTO PICKING A FIGHT WITH GERMANY

Behind the back of Congress and the American public, FDR uses his influence to discourage the government of Poland from making any deals over contested territory that had been stolen from Germany after World War I (Western Prussia). He assures Poland that if war breaks out in Europe, the United Kingdom, France, and, if need be, the United States itself would fight alongside of Poland. FDR's outrageous interference in the affairs of Europe emboldens the foolish Polish government into kicking off a disastrous World War.

During the opening weeks of the war, the Germans capture, and publish, Polish documents revealing the full extent of FDR's secret warmongering. \(here\) The U.S. denies the authenticity of the documents. However, fifty years after the end of the war, the unquestionably authentic diaries of the wartime Polish ambassador to the U.S. (Jerzy Potocki) will also confirm FDR's illegal and conspiratorial war making scheme. \(here\)

Ambassador Potocki exits the White House after a meeting with FDR. Potocki's own words confirm that FDR planned to use the controversy surrounding the "Polish Corridor", which cut through Germany, as a means of provoking war with Germany.

NOVEMBER 1939 / REPEAL OF THE NEUTRALITY ACTS

The post World War I Neutrality Acts prohibit the U.S. from selling arms to warring nations. Their purpose was to prevent the U.S. from ever again being drawn in a European war.

The brief German-Polish war has already ended, Britain & France are not yet fully deployed to attack Germany, and Germany is pleading for the Allies to rescind their ridiculous war declarations against Germany.

Against this backdrop, FDR pressures his Democrat flunkies in Congress to senselessly repeal/amend the standing Neutrality Acts. With the U.S. again able to ship arms, the warmongers of Britain are emboldened. Knowing that the tyrant FDR "has their back", the British ignore Hitler's sincere pleas to call off World War II, while there is still time.

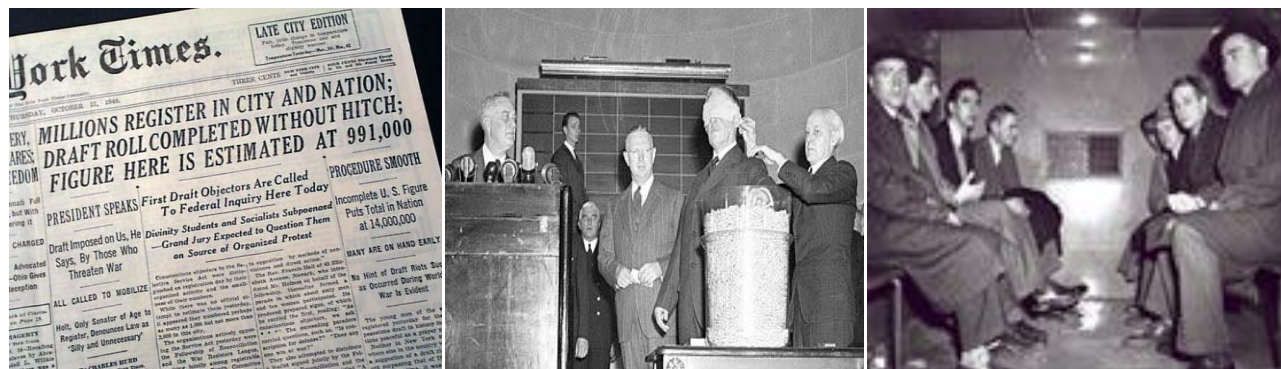

Had it not been for warmonger FDR's repeal of the Neutrality Act, the warring parties of Europe would have made peace long before the small war became the continental horror that it did.

SEPTEMBER 1940 / FIRST AND ONLY PEACETIME DRAFT IN U.S HISTORY

While publicly insisting that American boys "will not be going to any foreign war" FDR secretly prepares to do exactly that. He signs into law a peacetime 'Selective Service Act'. All males between the ages of 26-35 must register for an upcoming draft.

The actual draft begins in October, 1940. The unlucky draftees are forced to serve a 12 month term, based either in the Western Hemisphere or a foreign U.S. territory (Guam or Hawaii).

Draft resisters are imprisoned for up to one year. Those imprisoned include 8 men from a New York seminary who are studying to become Ministers.

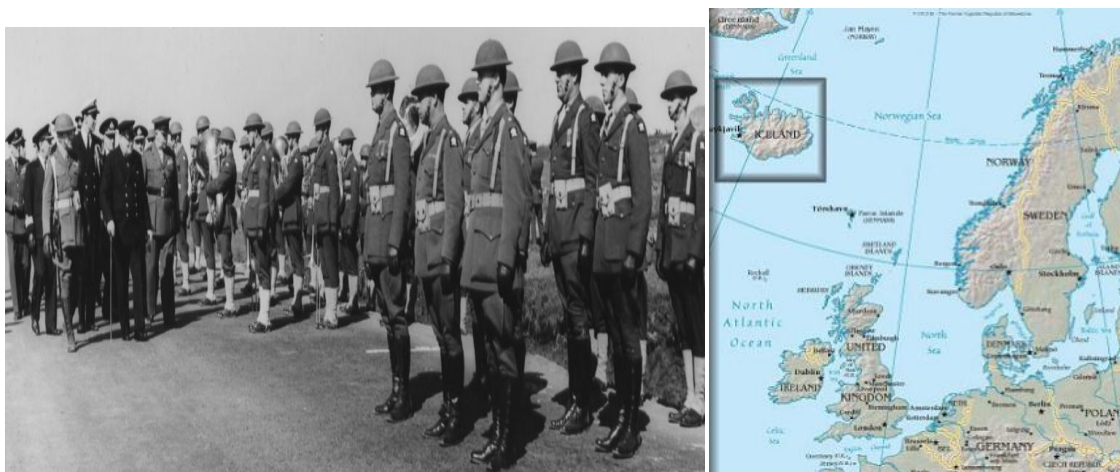

For daring to defy FDR's tyrannical peacetime draft, the "Union 8" (shown on right) from the Union Theological Seminary of New York, spent a full year in prison.

JULY 1941 / FDR TAKES OVER THE OCCUPATION OF NEUTRAL ICELAND FROM THE U.K

In May of 1940, British marines arrive in Iceland to set up bases of naval operation in the North Atlantic. This is done against the wishes of tiny, neutral Iceland (population 300,000) The British force eventually grows to 25,000. All exports to Germany are cut off, again, contrary to the wishes of powerless Iceland.

About one year after the British invasion, the bully FDR relieves the British occupiers with U.S. marines. This makes the U.S. complicit in the illegal violation of Iceland's sovereignty; a violation arranged by a President who is passionately promising his people, "your boys will not be going to any foreign wars."

FDR's co-conspirator, Winston Churchill, inspects the occupying British and U.S. troops in Iceland.

JULY 1941 / DRAFTEES' TERM OF SERVICE IS EXTENDED

The men who had been drafted were told that their terms would only be for 12 months.

As their terms draw to an end, the deceitful FDR (who is plotting to draw Japan into attacking Pearl Harbor) unilaterally increases the term of service! Outraged draftees protest and threaten to desert. In the end, they obey military orders out of fear; continuing to serve past their October 1941 release date. After Pearl Harbor (December), the issue will be a moot point anyway.

FDR betrays draftees. "You'll get out when I say you can!"

DECEMBER 1941 / PEARL HARBOR IS DELIBERATELY SET UP TO BE ATTACKED

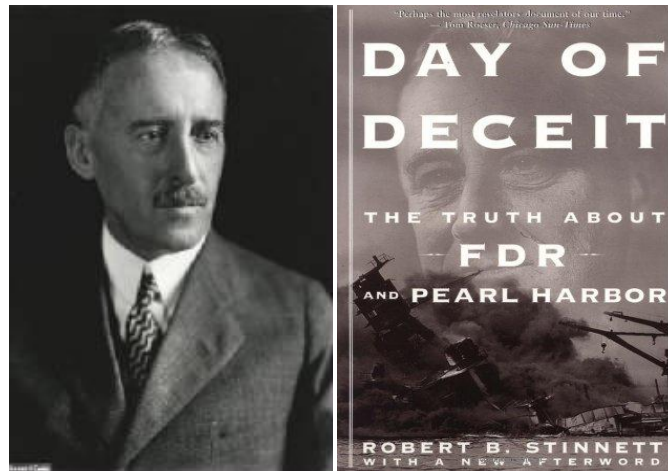

In the closing months of 1941, FDR's provocations of Japan escalate to the level of "acts of war". FDR imposes a total trade embargo on Japan, denies her ships access to the neutral Panama Canal, and orders battleships to undertake "pop up" cruises through Japanese waters.

Finally, on November 24, FDR sends an impossible ultimatum to Japan; implying a military threat while demanding Japan remove all troops from China (who Japan was at war with) as a condition for lifting the embargo.

The day before the hostile letter was sent, FDR's Secretary of War Henry Stimson recorded, in his personal diary, the topic of a meeting with FDR as follows: "The question was how we should maneuver them (Japan) into the position of firing the first shot."

When Japan understood that FDR's entry into the war was inevitable, they decide to gain an early advantage by attacking Pearl Harbor, which FDR has purposely left lightly defended and without warning of what is about to happen. In essence, FDR murders 2000 American sailors just so he can have an excuse to go to war.

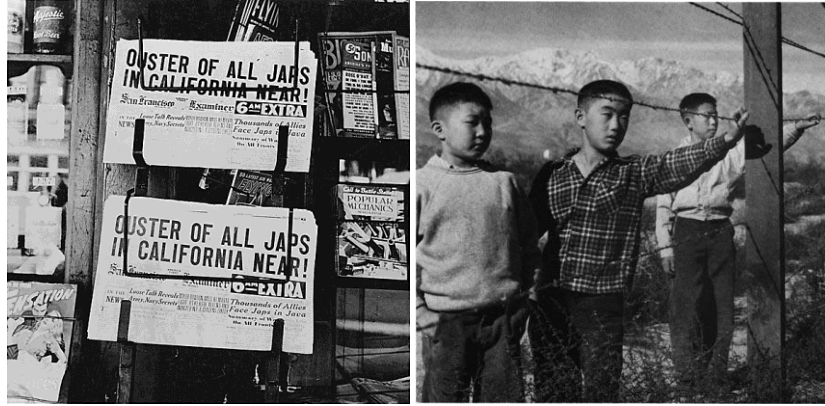

War Secretary Stimson's diary reveals the truth about Pearl Harbor. Day of Deceit by Robert Stinnett proves the case against FDR beyond any shadow of a doubt.

FEBRUARY 1942 / INTERNMENT OF JAPANESE-AMERICANS

FDR signs Executive Order 9066, ordering military commanders to designate areas "from which any or all persons may be excluded." Over 100,000 innocent Japanese-Americans, including children, are interned in concentration camps for 3 years. Many of these loyal citizens lose their businesses and will have to start over upon their release.

Although to a lesser extent, Americans of Italian and German ancestry are also targeted by these internments; 11,000 people of German ancestry and 3,000 Italian-Americans.

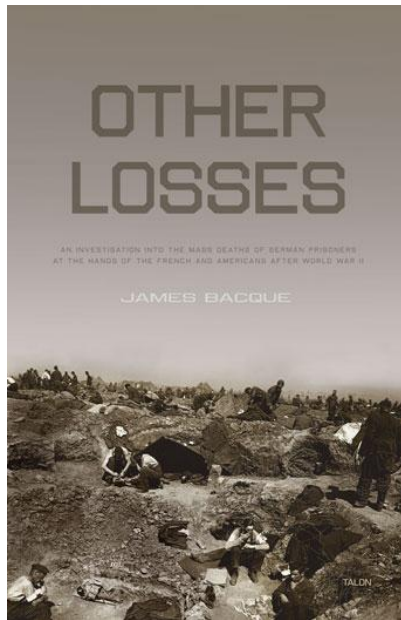

The "civil rights" liberal Democrats don't like to talk about how FDR interned innocent Japanese-Americans families behind barbed wire.

1943 / THE PLAN TO MURDER GERMAN SOLDIERS AFTER THE WAR

FDR and Stalin want to decapitate the German military after the war. To that end, they agree that much of Germany's military leadership should be executed when the time comes. According to the post-war memoirs of Winston Churchill himself, Stalin argues that 50,000 German officers and technicians should be shot. For political reasons, Churchill strongly opposes the idea of killing prisoners (though he was eager to kill civilians during the war itself).

FDR jokingly proposes a compromise, suggesting that only 49,000 German officers be killed. Churchill writes how he was never sure if it was a joke or not. (here) But the mass post-war death and disappearance of 3 million German POW's (thoroughly documented in James Bacque 1989 masterpiece, Other Losses) proves that FDR and Stalin were indeed deadly serious about their genocide plot!

Stalin and his buddy FDR weren't joking! Bacque's work reveals how 1.5 million German POW's were murdered by General Eisenhower's post-war policy of deliberate neglect. Millions more were shipped off to die in Stalin's Soviet labor camps.

FEBRUARY 1945 / THE YALTA CONFERENCE

At the historic "Big 3" Conference held in the Black Sea resort of Yalta, FDR plays God with the map of the world; handing over enormous concessions to the Devil himself, Joe Stalin. Without neither the presence, let alone the consent, of interested parties, the tyrant FDR (along with Churchill and Stalin) decrees that the following reallocations of territory, and people, will take place after Germany and Japan's defeat:.

- The Soviets will occupy Eastern Germany as well as the nations of Eastern Europe.
- The Soviets will join the war against Japan 90 days after the war in Europe has ended; and will be supplied with U.S. arms for the effort. (The Soviets declare war on Japan two days after the first atomic bomb has already been dropped!)
- After Japan is defeated, the Soviets will occupy northern Korea (without Korea's approval!), and Manchuria in China (without Nationalist China's approval!)
- Millions of Russian POW's captured by the Germans, as well as Russian refugees fleeing Stalin, will be returned to the vengeful Stalin (against their will!)

FDR's inexplicable, dictatorial Yalta decrees represent the direct origin of Mao's Communist takeover of China (1949), the Korean War (1950-1953, 50,000 Americans killed), the Cold War and Berlin Wall in Europe, and the Vietnam War (1965-1975, 50,000 more Americans killed).

The "Big 3's" ruthless decrees led to the Korean War 5 years later.

FEBRUARY 1945 / THE FIREBOMBING OF DRESDEN

By February of 1945, German resistance is collapsing on all fronts. Hitler has lost the war. The final territorial conquest of Berlin, coupled with Hitler's suicide, is only about 10 weeks away.

The artistic cultural center of Dresden contains no military targets; just terrified inhabitants and refugees. FDR & Churchill's decision to firebomb the city is therefore as cruel as it is unnecessary. On February 13, 1945 (Ash Wednesday "coincidentally"), wave after wave of Allied terror bombers burn most of the city to the ground.

Somewhere between 200,000 and 300,000 helpless Germans are burned alive or suffocated. Due to all of the refugees who had swelled the city's population, the death toll may even be greater than that.

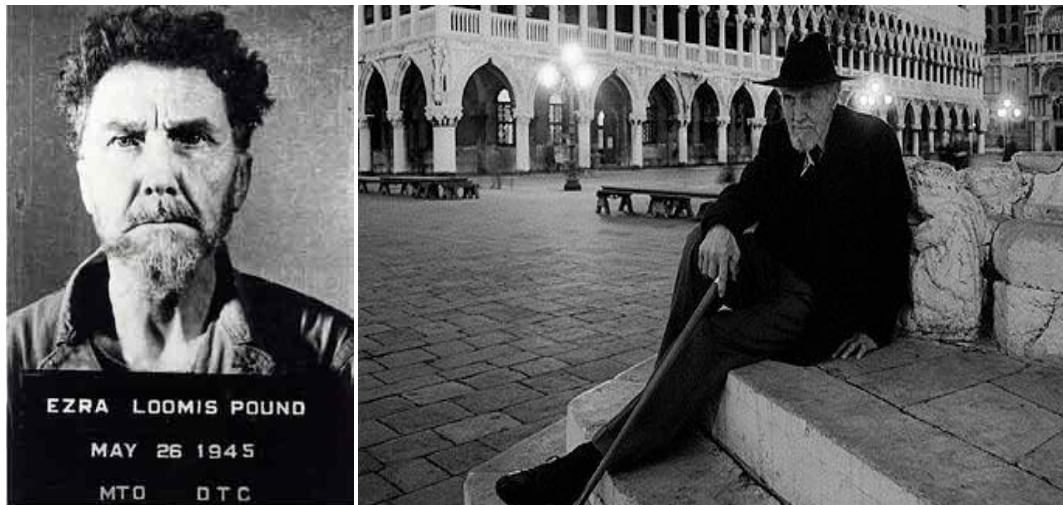

FDR and Churchill authorized the senseless brutality of the Dresden fire bombing.

MAY 1945 / POET EZRA POUND IS ARRESTED, CONDEMNED AS A TRAITOR

The legendary American poet Ezra Pound lived in Italy. During the war, he spoke out against the Jewish powerbrokers that he accused of manipulating Britain and America into an unnecessary war. The tyrant FDR, encouraged by the Communist assistants around him, (Alger Hiss, Harry Dexter White, Lauchlin Currie), personally ordered Pound's indictment in 1943.

With the final collapse of Italy in 1945, Pound falls into American hands. FDR had just died a few weeks earlier, but his orders to get Pound still stand. Pound will be sentenced to a Federal insane asylum. He is finally released and cleared of all charges in 1958.

Pound was wrongly condemned to an insane asylum for 13 years; returned to Italy upon his release.

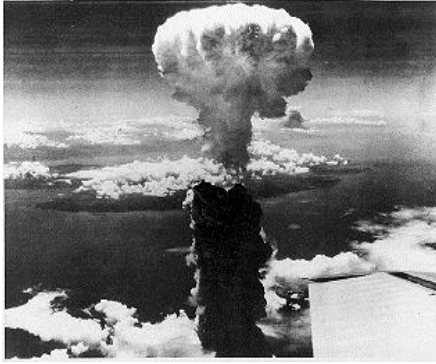

AUGUST 1945 / THE ATOMIC BOMBINGS OF JAPAN*

Plan originated by FDR, carried out by Truman after FDR's death

The official conscious-soothing falsehood regarding the 1945 atomic bombings of Hiroshima (August 6) and Nagasaki (August 10) is that the actions are necessary to save the lives of U.S. soldiers who will otherwise have to invade Japan.

The truth is, Japan has known for months that the war was lost, and was willing to negotiate surrender. General Douglas MacArthur himself will later confirm that the bombings were unnecessary because Japan's industrial capacity had already been knocked out and its people were hungry.

But FDR, his diabolical advisors, and then his successor Harry Truman are determined to show off their new toy at all costs. More than 200,000 Japanese civilians are incinerated by the two blasts. Many thousands more will die of cancer in later years.

The victims of the FDR / Truman bomb died or suffered needlessly.

"Liberty" my arse!
